Old Hickory Furniture Going to Tupelo 100 Year Old Manufacturer to Exhibit at Tupelo Market for the First Time

SHELBYVILLE, Ind. (August 8, 2007) – Old Hickory Furniture Company (www.oldhickory.com), designers and manufacturers of authentic rustic furniture, lighting, kitchen & bath cabinets and accessories, will be exhibiting at the Tupelo Furniture Market for the first time ever from August 22-26, 2007. With successful showrooms in High Point and Las Vegas, Old Hickory is eager to display their unique brand of rustic furniture at the Tupelo Market to energize the Southeast market.

“Old Hickory rustic lifestyle furnishings have been growing in popularity throughout most of the U.S., and we are confident that this show will help us expand our distribution in the South. Our goal is to reach out to a new retailer and designer base who do not typically attend High Point or Las Vegas,” said Bob Morrison, vice president of sales & marketing. Old Hickory will be displaying several new items including their new “Live Edge” Walnut table tops and their classic Andrew Jackson chair. Old Hickory will be displaying in Tupelo Building #4, Showroom 4030.

Old Hickory Furniture, recognized as the leading manufacturer of rustic furniture in the United States, was founded in Martinsville, Ind. in 1899, and today its headquarters and primary manufacturing plant is in Shelbyville, IN. Its customers are among the best known hotels, lodges, resorts, and restaurants in the country, including Old Faithful Inn, Disney World, and many more. In addition, leading retailers throughout the US offer an extensive collection of Old Hickory furniture for every room in the house. The complete line of products can be viewed at www.oldhickory.com.
